

Three Sisters Scenic Bikeway / Madras Mountain Views Scenic Bikeway – Turn by Turn Directions (Begin & End at Sahalee Park in Madras)

The Madras Mountain Views Scenic Bikeway is a 30-mile (48km) rural loop, starting/finishing in Madras. Riders peddle through a sage and juniper ecosystem, showcasing basalt palisades above the Deschutes and Crooked Rivers and the farms/ranches of Jefferson County. It offers stunning views of the Three Sisters, Mt. Jefferson, Mt. Hood and Three Finger Jack and passes by some of the state’s outstanding basalt palisades at The Cove State Park. It takes riders through an important agricultural area of the state where grass seed, onion seed, carrot seed, garlic, potatoes, wheat, alfalfa, lavender and mint are grown. The route passes through the small cities of Metolius and Culver. Jefferson County’s history is rich in Native American pre-history, ranching, railroad building, the coming of irrigation after World War Two, the buildings of dams, the settling here of Hispanic people and is an emerging center for recreation and tourism.
